Adam Coverstone

517 SW 12th Street
Gainesville, FL, 32601
acoverstone@ufl.edu
acoverstone.github.io
321-480-9768

Education

Student at the University of Florida   May 2017
Major: Computer Software Engineering
GPA: 3.26

Graduate of Melbourne High School   May 2013
AP Diploma Recipient and Student Leadership Award
GPA: 4.27   ACT: 31

Experience

Phlex startup: Software Engineer Intern   2015 – Present
  - Fitness tracking goggles for swimmers
  - Working on application development

Security for The Swamp   2015 - Present

Category Verses: Personal Project   2015
  - Bible verse app for iOS and Android developed using Ionic Framework

Offrs.com Visual Reporting App: Group Project   2015
  - Class project for Intro to Software Engineering
  - Used MEAN Stack, Github and Agile project management

Space Ride: Personal Project   2015
  - Exciting game for iOS and Android developed using LibGDX framework

Driver at Gotcha (University Nightlife Taxi)   2013 – 2015

Private Elementary and Middle School Tutor   2011 – 2013

City of Melbourne Pool Lifeguard   2010 - 2013

Skills

C++, Java, HTML, CSS, Javascript, MATLAB, Swift and Python

Github and Agile project management

Raspberry Pi

Relevant Coursework: Programming 1 and 2, Analysis of Discrete Structures,
Computer Organization, Data Structures and Algorithms, Communication for Engineers,
Digital Logic, Intro to Software Engineering, Databases, Web App Development, Digital Design

Extracurricular

Member of Association for Computing Machinery, Gator Association of Computer Engineers and Software Engineering club at UF

Hackathons

High school football player, wrestler, surf team member

Member of many organizations including: Business Ethics Club, Students Working Against Tobacco, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Marine Biology Club and Student Government

Guitar player for St. Marks United Methodist Church